

Access, Equity and Inclusion Statement

"All are welcome to explore freely in this library through its collection, building and resources. It is the longstanding role of libraries to foster personal or intellectual development by ensuring access to the widest diversity of views and expressions. The pursuit of social justice and equity, diversity, and inclusion is equally a core value of the Richmond Free Library."

Approved, Richmond Library Board of Trustees

April 12, 2021